Was ist nur mit den deutschen Politikerinnen los? Die schlechteste Außenministerin Deutschlands seit ~~Joachim von Ribbentrop~~ finanziert nicht nur die libanesische Armee, sondern maßt sich an, Israel dämliche Ratschläge zu erteilen: „Der Angriff auf den Terror-Führer sei „in keinsten Weise im Interesse der Sicherheit Israels“. Das ist nur noch oberpeinlich.

Die Genossin Wagenknecht geht sogar noch weiter. Sie möchte nicht, dass Israel sich gegen den Terror verteidigen kann, was letztlich dazu führen würde, dass Israel vernichtet würde. Das nenne ich waschechten Antisemitismus.

Aber sie sind nicht allein. Auch die internationalen Medien eiern herum.

Hassan Nasrallah, Who Led Hezbollah for Decades, Killed at 64

"In Lebanon, Mr. Nasrallah enjoyed tremendous devotion from Hezbollah's Shiite Muslim base, who saw in him a charismatic religious and political leader and military strategist who had dedicated his life to 'resistance,' or the fight against Israel and American influence in the Middle East."

"Mr. Nasrallah was one of the Arab world's most distinctive orators, with a robust command of classical Arabic that he spiced with common Lebanese phrases. He laced his speeches with references to restoring lost Arab virility, a message that resonated across a region long suffering from a sense of impotence in the face of Israel and its powerful Western backers. He came across as less dour than most Shiite clerics, partly because of his roly-poly figure, a slight lisp and a propensity to crack jokes."

In his broadcasts, Mr. Nasrallah always appeared tranquil, assured, sincere and well informed, in command of both the facts and the situation, utterly dedicated to his cause and to his men.

Hasan Nasrallah, Hezbollah leader and force in Middle East, is killed

"Among his followers, Mr. Nasrallah was seen as a father figure, a moral compass and a political guide. He was lauded as the man who empowered Lebanon's once downtrodden and impoverished Shiite community and protected it from Israeli incursions by turning Hezbollah into a formidable deterrent force."

"...he delivered advice on topics ranging from complicated regional events to personal hygiene during the covid pandemic, sometimes speaking for hours without notes, always in the folksy yet articulate manner that established him as a skilled orator."

"The death of his 18-year-old son, Hadi, in a battle with Israel in 1997 burnished Mr. Nasrallah's leadership credentials, establishing him as a man who had shared in the suffering of those battling the Israeli occupation."

Hezbollah leader Hassan Nasrallah transformed the militant group into a potent regional force

"Seen by his supporters as a charismatic and shrewd strategist, Nasrallah had reshaped Hezbollah into an archenemy of Israel, cementing alliances with the ayatollahs in Tehran and Palestinian militant groups such as Hamas."

"Idolized by his Lebanese Shiite followers and respected by millions of others across the Arab and Islamic world..."

"A fiery orator viewed as an extremist in the U.S. and much of the West, as well as in some oil-rich Gulf Arab countries, he was also considered a pragmatist..."

"...Nasrallah's image was far from that of a militant who commanded thousands of heavily armed, well-trained and battle-hardened followers. He often paused in his speeches to make jokes or break into local dialect..."
