

Freundschaft!

The Hill zitiert den US-amerikanischen Vizepräsidenten Vance, der über Deutschland sagt: „That friendship is based on shared values. You do not have shared values if you're jailing people for saying we should close down our border. You don't have shared values if you cancel elections because you don't like the results, and that happened in Romania. You do not have shared values if you're so afraid of you're own people that you silence them and shut them up.“