Aysel grew up in Oakland, she started in a street gang in her neighborhood fighting with other girls from other gangs for got respet. She had a toxic relationship with one of the leaders of the gang, months later of break her relationship, her ex boyfriend arrested and sentenced to 25 years in prison. She started to record in a small studio of other member of the gang, a Mixatpe called „Love&Pain“ (2021). The Mixtape „Love&Pain“ opened the doors to her of SRV Studios. When she was recording her album „Crazy4 U“ the label dropped her project. It was a hurt moment to her, and finally she came back to the gangs world.

Some rumorus about her say that she was member of X19, a street gang from California.

Backs to Studio when X19 gang made a indepent label. She recorded Revenge(a RnB indepent album) with singles like O-Town,Elevate your mind,Rise up and They ain't ready for us. Aysel moved to Hathian City where she started to work with a beatmaker from NOLA who is living here, in Hathian. Her music career is in ascent. She is working in new music for her next project and she released a new single „Crack Den“ to get new fans from Hathian, a song to represent what is the Hathian life.

Aysel feels uplifted after receiving praise for her music, contrasting her turbulent past filled with distrust towards police and chaotic street encounters. Balancing fame and a gang background, Aysel navigates Hathian's gritty urban landscape with caution and defiance.

A few dayss after her performance supporting the protest against HPD, Aysel signed a contract with Vice Records(May 14th/2025) .

This is an independent album recorded in Azteca Records. Aysel talks about her experiences from Oakland, her hometown, to other cities like San Jose or Santa Ramona Valley. She mentioned that the title of this album is a revenge to the music industry that didn't believe in her, and at the same time a demonstration to herself. With this album, she tries to get away from the streets and gangs.
